NEW CHURCH TO ORGANIZE WEDNESDAY

The 29th and concluding convention of the Eastern District of the American Lutheran Church opened Monday with the final address of President Gordon Huffman to the district over which he has presided since 1958. Dr. Huffman told the lay and clerical delegates of 226 congregations in the Eastern District that the district must confess that it has missed many opportunities for service in the heavily populated district reaching from Maine to Florida.

Approximately 400 delegates are registered.

Four new congregations and 19 clerical members were accepted into membership of the district of over 120,000 members. Reports were received from the departments of home missions, parish education and stewardship.

At Monday night's session the Rev. J. H. Kuder, president of the New Guinea mission field of the American Lutheran Church, told the delegates of the pressing need for additional personnel in New Guinea, especially for laymen with special skills. The Rev. Frank Klein, secretary of the district, assured the delegates in his sermon at the communion service in the chapel of Gettysburg College that this was "not a funeral service but an occasion for rejoicing as the old district dies so a new church might emerge with new purpose and new strength."

To Elect President
At the final session of the district tonight 33 congregations located in Ohio will officially withdraw from the Eastern District. Wednesday morning the first session of the new Eastern District of the American Lutheran Church will convene as 43 congregations of the former Evangelical Lutheran Church and 10 congregations of the former United Evangelical Lutheran Church will join with 197 congregations of the former American Lutheran Church. The president of the American Lutheran Church, Dr. Frederick A. Schlotz, will call the new Eastern District to order. The first item of business will be the election of a president.

LONG DISTANCE DIALING HERE THIS SUMMER

Long distance telephone service at the bidding of an index finger, is coming to Gettysburg this summer. Commonly referred to as direct distance dialing, the new service makes it possible for telephone customers to complete long distance calls without operator assistance.

According to United Telephone Company District Manager John Caldwell, with 3D service it will be as simple to call telephones in Baltimore, Chicago, Harrisburg and hundreds of other points, as to make a local call. At the present time the nationwide toll dialing system includes nearly 41 million phones in 42 states, five Canadian Provinces and the District of Columbia.

Engineered and manufactured by the Stromberg Carlson Company, Rochester, N. Y., United Telephone's modern electronic-mechanical equipment is being installed by a staff of technicians under the supervision of Don Beckstine.

Gettysburg's new system will be the unique in that direct distance dialing will be available to all grades of service except pay stations and there will be no operator interruption at any time on a customer-dialed call.

There will be no changes in local telephone numbers, calling procedures or rates as a result of the new service.

Treated At Hospital
Mrs. Garretson said an Indianapolis newspaper informed her today that her husband and his friends had been treated at an Indianapolis hospital for their injuries and had been released.

She said the newspaper did not have the exact nature of the injuries of the four men. She said they had planned to be home this evening but she anticipates that as a result of the accident they will arrive here probably early this afternoon.

Mrs. Garretson said this was the second trip by the four to the Speedway and that she believes they were among the 130 on the tower because last year they had used such a tower for a vantage point.

Perches Were Costly
Reports from Indianapolis today indicated officials there are investigating the slow motion crash of the tower which had been erected atop a truck in the infield of the Speedway.

The count of traffic deaths during the three-day Memorial Day weekend inched higher today, threatening to match or exceed the record 371 fatalities reported during the three-day 1958 Memorial holiday.

Reports of deaths resulting from traffic crashes that occurred before midnight Monday still were trickling in.

Four women died in the collision of a Greyhound bus and a semitrailer truck Monday night near Evanston, Wyo. At least 20 other passengers on the bus were injured.

One grim record already was set, this for all types of accidental deaths in the country during the 78-hour period. The old record for violent deaths attributed to the holiday observance was 804 in

Boris Pasternak Claims Nobel Prize Saved Life

Editor's Note — Gustav Svensson, formerly assigned to the Moscow staff of The Associated Press and fluent in Russian, interviewed Boris Pasternak in 1958 at the height of the storm over his Nobel Prize. The following story of the interview is the part that could not be printed while Pasternak was alive. He talked freely to friends and reporters but suggested, for the sake of his personal safety, that discretion be used in what they made public.

By GUSTAV SVENSSON
GENEVA (AP) — Boris Pasternak told me, in the middle of the storm over "Doctor Zhivago," that he believed the Nobel Prize had saved his life.

He also said that despite statements made in his name, he had never renounced the Nobel award. Pointing to his head and heart, Pasternak said: "It is in here and there and will remain there forever."

RED CROSS IS ASKING FUNDS FOR CHILE AID

Following an appeal to the American public by President Eisenhower, the Adams County chapter of the Red Cross today invited Adams Countians to make donations for the emergency relief of earthquake victims in Chile.

Chapter Chairman Charles E. Held said donations may be sent direct to chapter offices on Baltimore St. and revealed the first check for $5 came in this morning from David A. Mackley, Littlestown, a veteran of overseas military service.

A steady flow of appeals from Eastern area headquarters of the Red Cross received here describes the situation in Chile as "acute" where more than 5,000 are known to be dead or injured and more than two millions are homeless.

Rush Funds, Help
"This catastrophe gives every evidence that it is one of the most destructive disasters in modern times," Truman Solvord, Eastern area manager of the Red Cross, told county chapter officials.

The American Red Cross already has made an initial allocation of $150,000 from its disaster relief funds and $25,000 from the Red Cross children's fund for (Continued On Page 3)

Planning Unit To Meet

A regular meeting of the Cumberland Twp. planning commission will be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in Court Room No. 2, the Historical Society rooms, in the basement of the court house. The chairman, Colonel Thomas Nixon, has announced that "anyone interested is invited to attend."

Couldn't Ask Ambassador
"I could send somebody to pick up the prize money for me," he said.

He added jokingly: "I could not ask our Stockholm ambassador to do it for me because that would be the summit of duplicity."

Duplicity and the breakdown of personal integrity in a Communist society are the main themes in Pasternak's novel, which the Soviet government has not allowed to be published there.

The Nobel Committee said that it would inscribe Pasternak as the 1958 winner but that the $41,420 prize money would return to the fund because he had declined it. I saw Pasternak on Dec. 8, 1958. (Continued On Page 3)

Despite rain-laden skies—which drenched spectators in the National Cemetery moments after the exercises concluded—the 93rd annual Memorial Day exercises here Monday drew the largest attendance in a number of years.

An estimated 10,000 jammed Baltimore St. from Lincoln Square to the National Cemetery and several thousand gathered in the cemetery to watch the strewing of flowers by one of the largest contingents of school children, Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Explorer Scouts and Intermediate Girl Scouts and Senior Scouts to take part in recent years.

Attendance at the rostrum exercises dwindled swiftly when a light rain began to fall. A down-pour moments after the exercises ended drenched those that had remained.

"Freedom Is Not Free"
Maj. General R. M. Montgomery, assistant vice chief of staff of the U. S. Air Force, who delivered the principal address at the rostrum, said: "These memorial services remind us that freedom is not free, that we, too, must be winning to make sacrifices in defense of freedom. Indeed, today, perhaps more than at any other recent time, we are aware that we ourselves may be called upon to defend this freedom. Our willingness to do so is a measure of our devotion to the cause for which these men gave their lives."

The parade included the Biglerville, Bermudian Springs, Fairfield and Gettysburg High School bands and the Hanover American Legion drum corps.

Mounted were the marshal and aides and members of the Pennsylvania state police. The local Howitzer Battery of the National Guard and the Fairfield Armvets, in addition to participating in the parade, added a military note standing in rank at parade rest at the rostrum exercises.

17 Students, 10 Faculty Members Quit Seminary

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Vanderbilt University, an 85-year-old institution that prides itself on its scholarship, was shaken to the roots Monday by the resignation of the Divinity School dean and nine faculty members over a racial issue.

Fourteen students in the Divinity School also quit and three more who graduated Sunday said they were returning their diplomas. Most of the faculty members indicated their resignations would not become effective until next year.

All were protesting the refusal of the university to readmit for summer classes the Rev. James M. Lawson Jr., a Negro minister who was expelled from the Divinity School last March on grounds he was leader in sit-in demonstrations.

IKE HOST TO SEATO CHIEFS AT LUNCHEON

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter today pledged full U.S. support for the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization in its quest for peace and stability in the Far East.

In remarks prepared for the opening of the SEATO Council of Ministers he said existence of the eight-nation defense alliance has given a greater sense of security to the area southwest of Communist China.

"The United States is determined to continue to carry out its responsibilities in concert with the other members," Herter said.

Luncheon With President

The ceremonial opening was in some respects only a prelude to a two-hour luncheon meeting of the SEATO ministers with President Eisenhower. The White House date underscored the importance the United States attaches to the council which brings together the prime ministers of Australia and New Zealand and the foreign ministers of Britain, France, the Philippines, Pakistan and Thailand, with Herter as chairman.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon drew the assignment to welcome the ministers formally on behalf of the United States.

Britain's Foreign Minister Selwyn Lloyd said one of the achievements of SEATO is the fact that there has been no major act of aggression in the area since the defense alliance was formed.

4 WOMEN ARE KILLED IN BUS, TRUCK CRASH

EVANSTON, Wyo. (AP) — Four women were killed and more than 20 other passengers were injured when a Greyhound bus smashed into the rear of a parked trailer-truck Monday night.

"One of the women died in my arms as I pulled her out," Coroner Gilbert Bills said. "People were still screaming."

The accident occurred 28 miles east of Evanston, on U.S. 30 in southwestern Wyoming.

The Inter-State Motor Lines truck had stopped in the right lane of the four-lane highway and its driver had stepped out to assist a motorist whose car had stalled. Another driver was asleep in the cab.

Treated For Injuries In the darkness, the bus smashed into the rear of the truck but remained upright.

Neither of the truckers was reported injured.

The bus driver, Henry Everts, and two passengers were taken to an Evanston hospital. Four who were more seriously hurt were taken to Ogden and Salt Lake City, Utah, hospitals.

Several other passengers were treated for injuries at the Evanston hospital and released.

Extent of the bus driver's injuries was not determined.

President Extends His Far East Tour

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower will leave June 12 on his Far Eastern tour to Japan, Korea, the Philippines, Formosa and Okinawa.

Announcing this today, the White House said that on the way the President also will visit this country's newest states, Alaska and Hawaii.

Eisenhower will travel aboard his jet airliner, but may transfer to the U.S. cruiser St. Paul for the trip from Manila to Taipei, the capital of Formosa.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said he would be unable to announce for a few days whether Mrs. Eisenhower will accompany the President.

The First Lady had been planning to make the trip when it included a 10-day visit to the Soviet Union, but Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev withdrew his invitation.

The White House announced several weeks ago that Eisenhower would go to Japan and Korea.

Addition of the Philippines, Formosa and Okinawa confirms unofficial reports earlier this week that the President had decided to accept the invitations of those governments as a result of cancellation of the Soviet tour.

BULLETINS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today decided the federal government is entitled to oil-rich submerged lands more than three geographic miles off the coasts of Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon today called for a post-summit policy of "firmness without belligerence" toward the Communists rather than a war of words he said might lead to nuclear war.

Nixon sounded the keynote theme in officially opening a conference of ministers of the eight-nation Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today the SEATO defense pact has helped to prevent further Communist domination in Southeast Asia.

Eisenhower made the statement in a brief speech at a White House luncheon attended by delegates of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization conference which opened today.

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — The revolutionary government moved today to stamp out political activity in Turkey with scattered arrests.

Adams County's Council Of Churches Issues Its First News Letter; To Be Quarterly

The spring clothing drive and the program in connection with the migrant workers to be in the county this summer get top attention in the first news letter to be issued by the Adams County Council of Churches. The letter appeared this week and promises to appear quarterly.

Highlights of the letter sent to leaders of all county churches follow:

Spring Clothing Drive
"We have arranged to have the truck from Church World Service at New Windsor, Md., come to the county on June 23 to pick up donations of clothing for the needy people of the world. There is a particular need for blankets. Ladies' hats, high heel or open-toed shoes are not useful. But nylon stockings are now requested. A special processing plant has been set up in South Korea in which war widows unravel and re-weave these for re-sale. Please keep the nylons separate."

"The truck will stop at the following churches: Littlestown—St. John's Lutheran; Gettysburg—St. James Lutheran and Presbyterian; Biglerville—St. Paul's Lutheran; Hellsburg—United Brethren; York Springs—Methodist; Hampton—Emmanuel United Church of Christ; East Berlin—Zwingli United Church of Christ; Abbottstown—St. John's Lutheran; New Oxford—Methodist."

About The Air Force Manual
"Quite a furor was raised when it was discovered that an Air Force Manual asserted that many Protestant ministers were carrying Communists, that the National Council of Churches was Communist-infiltrated, and that many of those who translated the Revised Standard Version of the Bible and had Communist leanings. The manual was withdrawn immediately; apologies were made in the press, on radio and television; from educators and statesmen, from Roman Catholic and Jewish leaders came support for the National Council of Churches, its 107,000 active pastors and the 39 million church members it represents. In spite of all this, some prefer to keep the charges alive. A very interesting little pamphlet 'The Truth about the National Council, etc.' is available at 10c per copy from the Pennsylvania Council of Churches, 2403 Front Street, Harrisburg. If you would like a copy, please write for it."

The Migrants Are Coming!
"Both Spanish speaking and southern Negroes will be coming into our county again this summer to help harvest the fruit and vegetable crops. We are told that there were about 500 southern Negroes and about 300 Puerto Ricans with us last year. The council, in cooperation with the Pennsylvania and National Council of Churches, has arranged to have Herbert O. Arrunategui, an unmarried Methodist Seminary student, to minister to the Spanish speaking group. We hope to have a Negro pastor to spend perhaps three days per week to minister to the Negroes."

"The council, along with other interested agencies, has appealed to the state to set up a day care center somewhere in the area where the migrants live, to which the children could come for school, lunch, recreation, etc. If such a center is established, there is also the possibility of having a welfare worker spend some time with the migrants."

"The treasurer reminds us that $655 of our quota of $1,450 is to be paid before the chaplain arrives on June 25, the other half as the work progresses. Our quota is only a part of the total cost for this ministry. Members of the council help support this work when they contribute to the budget of the council. Others may make their contributions to this work directly through the treasurer, Jay Brown, Gettysburg, or through the County Sabbath School Association."

Vacation Church School Time
"No church is too large or too small for a Vacation Church School if it has Christians who care. Take them some lively books and girls, add some summer week days, and some consecrated teachers who have made careful preparation and mix them all together in Christian living relationships and you have a Vacation Church School. We suggest two helpful books: 'The How of Vacation Church Schools,' from the National Council of Churches, 475 Riverside Drive, New York 27, N. Y., and 'The Vacation Church School in Christian Education' by Elsie Miller Butt from the Abingdon Press. If you want help from local people, please contact Mrs. Ralph Hykes, R. 1, York Springs, or Luther Lady, Biglerville. A very worthy project for the offerings would be the migrant work."

Convention Of CCCE
"The annual convention will be held on June 5 at 2 o'clock in St. John's Lutheran Church, Abbottstown. The main speaker will be Dr. Allen Meek, a former president of the Lancaster Theological Seminary. Each school is asked to send representatives. Those who are named to the Division of Christian Education of the Council of Churches should feel a special responsibility to be present. A revision of the constitution and bylaws of the Council of Christian Education will be voted upon."

Six weeks after the academy announced it had selected him for the first literary Nobel Prize ever awarded to a Soviet Russian. Five weeks earlier, the Communist party newspaper Pravda had published a letter in Pasternak's name declining the award.

The storm against the author was still raging at full blast throughout all Soviet propaganda media.

He was very isolated and regarded Western newsmen as his "only friends and remaining links with the world."

I asked him if the prize brought him all his troubles, and if his position was being aggravated by what was written about him in the Western press.

Owes Life To Protest
"This he denied vehemently. 'I owe my life to these international protests,' he said."

"One 'Doctor Zhivago' was published abroad, I had it coming to me. But I had to write that book and I had to publish it where it could be published. I put all I had of strength and ability as a writer into the book and there is nothing I would change."

"The Nobel Prize was of tremendous help. To me it meant the support of the world. This saved me from the worst. They could not get rid of me."

Pasternak believed at the time that the storm would pass over in a month. Most of it did. But the time also was to come when he was virtually incommunicado, although the Soviet press had dropped all mention of him months earlier.

Friends visiting his country home were handed a slip of paper by a servant. The note said in English and Russian:

"I can receive nobody. There can be no preferences. I am right sorry. Yours truly, Boris Pasternak."

$92,500 IS AWARDED BOY

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A six-year-old Sunbury boy was awarded $92,500 in damages today in an out-of-court settlement with the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The settlement was filed in the Common Pleas Court of Judge David Ullman by Atty. James Beasley on behalf of Ronald Lee Rupp.

The youngster lost his right arm and suffered brain injuries when struck by a PRR train on Feb. 8, 1957 near his home while he was riding a tricycle. Ronald was 3½ at the time.

The legal action was brought by the child's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rupp. It originally had been tried before Judge Edward Griffith but the trial ended with a jury unable to agree. A new trial never began as both sides agreed on a settlement.

Beasley said the youngster, because of the head injuries, has epilepsy. The money, minus expenses and legal fees, will be placed in a trust fund for Ronald.

Build Defenses In Fight Against Fire

GAGNON, Que. (AP)—Aided by dying winds and a light rain, hundreds of firefighters feverishly built defenses today against a forest blaze that forced air evacuation of some 500 women, children and hospital cases from this north-east Quebec mining town.

Twenty-six military, commercial and private planes moved more than 400 evacuees Monday to Montreal, 600 miles away. Another 90 were flown to Sept-les, on the St. Lawrence, 150 miles to the southeast.

The fire broke out from unknown causes on Sunday.

Gagnon could only be reached by air because floods had washed out the only road to the town.

Some freighters plying only among the Hawaiian Islands can carry 12 passengers each.

"A DAY OFF"

Once in a while it's good to take . . . a day away from toil . . . eight hours from the old routine . . . to let yourself uncoil . . . for it's been said "all work, no play . . . makes Jack a real dull boy" . . . why not partake of pleasures . . . God meant you to enjoy . . . a sojourn to the countryside . . . or to a sandy shore . . . each is a tonic for the heart . . . and will be evermore . . . these places give the traveler . . . a brand new lease on life . . . giving him faith, hope and strength . . . to cope with any strife . . . in other words, be moderate . . . work hard but play as well . . . the man who tries to practice this . . . will always ring the bell . . . so when the pressures of this life . . . tend to make you scoff . . . pack up all your troubles . . . and take a day off.

SEE DECREASE IN APPLE CROP IN FOUR STATES

An apple crop for the 4-state Appalachian apple belt 6-to-7 million bushels smaller than last fall's 25-million-bushel crop was indicated at the annual meeting of Eastern Apple Marketing Cooperative, held recently in Martinsburg, W. Va.

A smaller bloom, frosts and poor pollination-and-set have cut the crop in the central and eastern sections of the belt to an estimated 60-to-65 per cent of last year's, and veteran growers expressed concern over possible consequences of the continuing "drop." Best prospects are in the southern half of Virginia, Staunton and southward, where the Winesap crop is heavy and varieties generally well set up.

Three Varieties Short
From Staunton northward to Philadelphia, three major varieties are notably short: Delicious, Staymans and York Imperials. Golden Delicious, Jonathan and Rome Beauty are generally well cropped.

Eastern Fruit Marketing Cooperative is the central agency for the growers' cooperatives of Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia whose job is sales and other problems in apples moving to the processors.

President J. Kenneth Robinson, Winchester, Va., presided over the annual meeting. Plans were discussed for the season ahead. The next meeting of the directors will be held June 29.

AAUW READERS AID TEACHERS

A project of the Gettysburg Branch of the American Association of University Women to assist the English department of Gettysburg High School was reported today.

Under the plan, a dozen women volunteered their services as lay readers to read compositions written by the students of the junior-senior high school. According to the report, for each teacher to have read and corrected the themes would have added "30 hours of extra work each week" to the teachers' duties.

The readers included Mrs. W. Richard Schubart, chairman of the program; Mrs. Lewis Frank, Mrs. Arthur Rice, Mrs. Richard Newsham, Mrs. Basil Crapner, Mrs. James Pickering, Mrs. Robert Fryling, Mrs. Robert Barnes, Mrs. James Krum, Mrs. Randall Beirne, Mrs. Donald M. Swope and Mrs. John Shainline.

Gettysburg School Superintendent H. Edgar Riegle said teachers reported the additional writing practice thus made possible resulted in improvement of the pupils' writing skill and "it is our feeling that not only was it helpful to the teachers but a very direct benefit to every pupil in the school."

The lay reader system was first tried as an experiment in 16 schools in the country including Allentown and proved so successful other communities have adopted the program.

DRIVER JAILED

Joseph Kline, 27, Fayetteville, was placed in the county jail Sunday evening charged by state police before Justice of the Peace Fritz, McKnightstown, with driving while under suspension. State police also placed Michael Gernies, 35, Phoenixville, in jail early this morning "for investigation."

ASSIST AT FIRE

The Abbottstown Fire Company assisted in extinguishing the fire in a barn and two-car garage on the C. E. A. Becker farm, Thomasville R. 1, Sunday afternoon. Damage was estimated at $8,000.

ing place of these honored dead. Their sacrifice has made it possible for us to be here today. These memorial services remind us that freedom is not free, that we, too, must be willing to make sacrifices in defense of freedom. Indeed, today, perhaps more than at any other recent time, we are aware that we ourselves may be called upon to defend this freedom. Our willingness to do so is a measure of our devotion to the cause for which these men gave their lives.

Honor All Americans

"Memorial Day was first intended as a time to honor those who died in the Civil War. But as succeeding generations have had their own wars and their own heroic deeds, this day now honors ALL Americans who gave their lives for their country in all wars. This National Cemetery contains the bodies, not only of Civil War veterans, but of those who fought and died in the Spanish American War, World War I, World War II and in Korea. As we gather here today in their honor, we are telling them that their sacrifice will never be in vain. So long as we remember them, we are resolved to defend the nation and the ideals for which they fought. As we stand here today on this field of honor, we look in two directions — to the past and to the future."

"In looking at our historic past, we see the determination and willingness of Americans to defend their country. As we look forward, we understand that this same kind of determination and willingness must be part of our lives too. We do right to honor our dead, but it is also proper for us to pray that we, too, will have the necessary firmness and strength to assure that our nation will flourish as the home of freedom and a refuge from tyranny."

Two Conflicts

"As we look about us in the world today, we see people torn between two conflicting principles — slavery and freedom. One nation symbolizes slavery and godless materialism — that nation is the Soviet Union. Our country — the United States of America — is the symbol of freedom and spiritual beliefs. A gigantic struggle is going on between these two principles to capture the minds of men all over the world."

"We must help win that struggle because we stand for freedom and for spiritual beliefs. The other nations of the world look to us as leaders of the Free World because of our beliefs and our high ideals. For our victory in this struggle, we need strength — strength of two kinds. We must have physical strength and superiority in goods to enable us to protect ourselves. We must be militarily strong to defend ourselves and our allies. But in addition to this kind of power, we must also have strength of character or moral strength. Such strength comes from a firm adherence to the ideals for which our nation has always stood. And it is because of our ideals and our beliefs in the spiritual side of man that we know we will win out in this conflict."

Fare Tremendous Task
"The task facing the United States and its people is a tremendous one. Its accomplishment calls for great sacrifices. But Americans have always been ready to make sacrifices in order to protect and defend the freedom and ideals we all cherish. There is no question but that we can and will continue this tradition."

"My conviction that we are ready to measure up to the task that faces us comes from my observations in Washington. I am fortunate in being there in the center of activities at this particular time so that I can report directly to you what I see and know. From my vantage point of close observation, I can say that you can be justly proud of your leaders. You can congratulate yourself on having a strong President in the White House who is supremely concerned with world peace and international freedom. You know to what great ends he has gone to solve problems and remove tensions in the world. His qualities have made him not just the leader of our nation but the leader of the free countries of the world in their resistance to Communist aggression."

Pride And Confidence
"You and all of us can also feel pride and confidence in our congressmen. Our senators and representatives are gravely concerned with the protection of the United States against attack, the survival of this nation and its freedom. They turn their great skill and energies to seeing that our country is secure. They are available for the security of our nation. Their primary concern is to see that everything is done to strengthen the nation so that it can never be overcome by internal subversion or foreign attack. They stand united behind the President in rejecting any foreign assertions that our people are divided, or purposeless, or weak."

"About our military forces I can speak with first-hand knowledge. I know they are prepared to defend the United States against any attack. The Air Force, the Army, and the Navy have available a wide range of weapons to respond to any possible threat. Each of the services is ready in its sphere to do the utmost to keep our nation secure."

"We threaten no nation in the world, but we can say with assurance that any nation which attacks us will be defeated by the power at our command. But our military and industrial might is all aimed toward one end and that is the maintenance of peace in the world. Because our purpose — the protection of the United States — is a just one, we can be confident our determination is sufficient to carry it out."

"Our burden in the world today is a heavy one. We bear a great responsibility, not just to the United States but to the world. It is our duty as Americans to face our task with courage and with determination. Then, united behind our great President, we can demonstrate to the world our firm dedication to peace and freedom."

"You citizens of Gettysburg are in a fortunate position. Every day of the year you have before you a constant reminder of American patriotic ideals, of American unity, and of the devotion of the individual American to his country. Not every community is so favored."

"It is therefore good for the rest of us to be reminded on patriotic occasions like this of the meaning of America. It is valuable for us to return periodically through such ceremonies to the holy occasions of our past. When we see how willingly great numbers of our young men gave so freely of their lives, hopes, and futures to protect these United States, to assure their survival, we are strengthened in our purpose and fortified in our resolution to meet the challenge of our own times."

"The message that this memorial cemetery bears for us assembled here is one of hope. It is a reaffirmation of the determination of our forebears not to submit to tyranny of any kind. This is the thought we should carry away in our hearts."

"Just as we receive a message here today, so should we also leave a message with those we are honoring. We must tell them in ringing terms that American ideals mean as much to us as they meant to them. That we, too, are willing to sacrifice all in defense of our ideals. That while we live, America will remain free and united against all opponents. We would all be derelict in our duty if we did not make this promise to them."

"Let us, therefore, resolve today to do our utmost as individuals and as a nation to preserve for ourselves and to bring to others the moral principles of truth and freedom and justice. Our faith in democracy is based on allegiance to a higher law. This is what has made democracy work. To the continuance of this ideal in our country and to its extension to all others who seek freedom, let us pledge in the words of the Declaration of Independence, 'our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor.'"

"May God continue to bless our great country and keep it strong."

LOCAL AIRMAN IS HONORED

A/IC Eugene P. Pecher has been selected as the outstanding airman of the 5010th Air Base Squadron in Alaska for the three-month period from February 1 through April 30, according to a letter received by his mother, Mrs. Helen Pecher, Fairfield, from Maj. George O. Anderson, commander of the squadron.

The letter follows:
"Your son, A/IC Eugene P. Pecher, has been selected as the Outstanding Airman of the 5010th

EUGENE PECHER
Air Base Squadron for the period February 1, 1960, through April 30, 1960.

"Eugene was in competition with all the airmen of this organization and was selected for this honor by the Organizational Management Committee. Criteria for selection was based upon attitude, initiative, military courtesy, appearance, loyalty, citizenship, growth potential and performance of duty."

"It has been my pleasure to observe Eugene in his capacity as dining hall shift leader and I congratulate you for the excellent manner in which he has been reared. I consider Eugene an asset to the nation, the U. S. Air Force and my squadron."

"As a token of appreciation he will receive an engraved trophy and a letter of appreciation presented at commander's call."

Teen-agers Fight London Policemen

LONDON (AP)—Two thousand rioting teen-agers fought a wild, hour-long battle with police squads during a jazz concert in a London park Monday night.

Seven policemen were injured—kicked, butted or punched—before the screaming, shouting mob was cleared from the park.

Trouble started when a big crowd was turned away from the main enclosure, filled to its 2,000 capacity for the concert in the tough, working-class district in the East End.

gan, the 130 on the tower leaned forward to see better and the tower slowly toppled off the truck onto spectators below.

Blame Management

Indianapolis Coroner Roy B. Storms placed blame for the accident on the Indianapolis Motor Speedway management, according to Associated Press reports. He said for years the group has ignored his protests against the makeshift towers which dot the track's infield every Memorial Day. Edwin K. Steers, Indiana's attorney general, said a check will be made to determine whether safety measures can be imposed on the privately owned track.

The scaffolding, made of three-inch tubing, was owned by Wilbur Shortridge, an Indianapolis meat market owner, who was among those injured. Linder, who was fatally hurt, was his son-in-law.

Reports from the Associated Press noted: "Witnesses told of trying desperately to rescue mangled injured from beneath the aluminum pipes while other spectators, not ten feet away, went on drinking beer and munching fried chicken—concerned mainly with seeing the race start."

Chilean relief work. A Red Cross disaster team has been dispatched to Chile, headed by Dick Tomlin, assistant director of the Red Cross disaster service for the Eastern area, to help with emergency relief work.

"Cash contributions are urgently needed," the Rev. Mr. Held said. "On the basis of President Eisenhower's request and in support of action taken by Gen. Albert Gruenther, we urge all citizens to support relief efforts in the Chilean disaster. President Eisenhower has urged our people to demonstrate once again the great generosity so characteristic of them."

Not Asking Clothing

There has been no appeal for clothing but the chapter office here has been advised that if good used clothing is offered, it should be accepted and turned over to church or other agencies making appeals for clothing needs in Chile.

Red Cross aid also has been offered in Hawaii and Japan where tidal waves caused great havoc but Red Cross organizations there have indicated they are handling the emergency. Gifts earmarked for those areas will be forwarded.

"In keeping with Philadelphia's Freedom Week activities and our Independence Day tradition, the event will be an auspicious one."

Memorial services were held by the Philadelphians at the monuments of the 69th Pennsylvania and the 69 New York regiments which were comprised largely of men of Irish descent. Speakers included the national president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and the editor of the Irish World.

Following the programs on the field, the group held a luncheon at the American Legion home, Baltimore St.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Memorial Day At Gettysburg:

Seven thousand people from many states visited Gettysburg on Monday and it will be remembered as one of the most notable

Memorial Days the town has had.

Never on any similar occasion have the crowds been so large except on days when there was some special attraction such as the visit of Roosevelt or Taft.

The town was literally thronged with visitors from early morning until the last train pulled out in the evening.

The National Cemetery was never more beautiful than on Monday and the exercises of the day were never more impressively rendered. Over each grave of known and unknown dead

fluttered a small United States

flag and as the veterans, school children and members of the patriotic orders marched across the graves scattering flowers the strains of "Nearer My God to Thee" rose in the distance making the ceremony most beautiful and impressive. Hon. J. Slott

Fassett, congressman from New York, spoke on "The Spirit of Gettysburg."

Improvements Are Numerous:

The spirit of improvement which has been prevailing here for some months is becoming all the more noticeable as the Spring gets older. Large numbers of houses have been painted in town, pavements have been laid and other improvements to homes and business places have made the town present a decidedly improved appearance.

Comet Again On View: The

comet of Mr. Halley Friday evening demonstrated that it was no fake, although what people said of it hardly justified the great amount of discussion. There was little talk of the comet during the early part of the evening, but later the tail was more apparent.

The tail was visible, but it took a whole lot of imagination to make one believe that the tail is 25,000 miles long.

Factories Increase: The industrial statistics are now being gathered in connection with the thirteenth decennial census and will show a commercial growth in Gettysburg and Adams county.

The census will include returns from about 350 to 400 concerns

more in Adams and York counties than were in existence when the last census was taken in 1900.

Boys Riding 2,000 Miles: Louis and Temple Abernathy, riding

2,000 miles from Frederick,

Okla., their home, to New York to greet Colonel Roosevelt next month, are expected here the latter part of this week. Louis is 8 years old and Temple is 6 and they are traveling alone. The lads are bright and courageous and they are being given great attention. Their father went hunting with Roosevelt in Oklahoma in 1905 and showed him how to catch wolves with his bare hands.

They became great friends and Roosevelt appointed him United States marshal at Guthrie.

THE RACE IS TO THE SURE

Nothing is ever accomplished without great and infinite pains—if it is meant to last and form a part in the scheme of permanence.

How many racers take an early lead, only to fall to the rear before the contest is ended. And what a part long and faithful preparation plays in the final result.

The race is not to the swift—but to the faithful, the steady, the loyal, the careful, the watchful, the honest—the one who has real soul-vision.

One of the greatest reasons why the world today is still in such chaos is that it has wanted to reap too much too quickly.

The race is not to the swift.

If an idea is sound, it can wait until development. Money made too quickly is rarely appreciated.

Early fame is deteriorating—it stunts. The structure too rapidly built, soon crumbles. If it is worth doing, it is worth doing the best way that it can be done.

Effort may be dissipated and come to little avail. Wait. Take time. Think. Prepare—and make your preparation for that which shall endure. Mind not the urgency of the present. Unless you make the correct use of the present, you cannot hope for greatness in the future. The race is to the sure—not the swift.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Meditative

Reflection."

Just Folks

HELP THE OTHER FELLOW

Help the other fellow

With a smile or word of cheer;

Try to sing his praises

While he's toiling with us here.

Try to smooth his pathway

As he plods his journey through.

For he's striving for the haven

That we all are marching to.

In the big sense he is brother

To the big and to the small;

He is going my way, your way,

On this old terrestrial ball.

He's a fellow traveler with us,

And his goal is our goal, too;

And he's not a rank outsider

Any more than I or you.

Help the other fellow;

Try to make your kinship known.

Don't think that you can travel

Any path on earth alone.

Try to make his burdens lighter.

For it's what you ought to do;

And some day when you are troubled

He will do the same for you.

TWO DROWN IN

SUSQUEHANNA

WRIGHTSVILLE, Pa. (AP) —

Three York men, related by marriage, were forced into the swift-running Susquehanna River Monday when their rowboat shipped water. Two drowned trying to reach shore. The third clung to the craft and was rescued.

Richard Lindt, 25, said his father-in-law, Roy Baublitz, 42, and Baublitz's son-in-law, William

Wagner, 24, struck out for the shore 100 yards distant after the boat nearly filled.

Lindt wrapped the bowline around his arm and waited until he was rescued by Donald Stouzenberg of Wrightsville and R. P.

Glackin of York in another boat.

Lindt said the trio had rented the boat and went out onto the river for some fishing. They tossed over the anchor and when it took hold abruptly the rear of the boat was pulled under water.

Dragging operations failed to recover the bodies.

PLANE STORY

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Allen W.

Dulles, top man in the nation's global espionage system, goes before a Senate committee today with his inside story of the U2 spy plane incident.

As director of the Central Intelligence Agency, Dulles is a key witness in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee's investigation of what went wrong.

There was advance evidence that, behind the committee room's closed and guarded doors, Dulles might go further than he ever has done before in disclosing details about spying in general and the U2 incident in particular.

Will Direct Censor

He demanded and received the right to decide for himself whether even censored transcripts—or anything at all—of what he said would ever be made public.

None of the censored testimony was to be released during the hearing, as was done last Friday

when Secretary of State Christian

Douglas Dillon were the witnesses.

The committee headed by Sen.

J. William Fulbright (D-Ark) is exploring foreign policy implica-its pilot deep inside the Soviet Union on May 1. As a result of the incident, the Soviets wrecked the

RUSSIA FEARS

DETECTION OF

MISSILE BASES

By ENDRE MARTON

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union's threat to attack any foreign airfield used by a plane flying over her territory was seen here today as part of a determined effort to keep secret her relocation of missile bases.

American analysts of Soviet affairs said that the significance of a speech Monday by Marshal

Rodion Malinovsky at a Kremlin meeting of Communist workers follows similar warnings by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev against permitting use of the bases by spy planes.

Malinovsky said he has ordered rocket strikes at the base from which any plane takes off and violates air space of the Soviet Union or its Communist partners.

"We do not know what the intruder plane may carry," he said in explaining the order. "It may well be a hydrogen bomb."

No Official Comment

The State Department had no immediate official comment.

Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt)

said "It seems that the war party has come back into power" in the Soviet Union. He contended that if the order is followed to the letter, even an accidental violation of Soviet air space could set off

a nuclear war.

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont)

also said Malinovsky's speech

may have grave implications,

Skidding White Sox Drop To Fourth Spot; Pirates Lead National Loop Race

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

In spring training it was new power and added pitching strength that had the smart money riding on Chicago's defending champion White Sox in the American League pennant race. Now June is busting out all over and the Sox are busts.

The could-be sluggers aren't. Early Wynn has lost more than he has won. Bob Shaw is 4-4. Billy Pierce (3-2) has won once in the last two weeks.

In nine nightmarish days the champs have lost eight of 10, skidding from the top to fourth place.

Cleveland's second-place Indians swept a Memorial Day pair at Chicago, 4-1 and 9-4, and used ex-White Sox Bubba Phillips, Johnny Romano and Barry Latman to do it. That plunked Chicago to fourth, 3½ games behind front-flying Baltimore.

Orioles Divide

The Orioles lost a game of their lead, but still have a one-game edge over Cleveland after splitting with Boston. Baltimore took the opener 7-5, then lost 12-3. New York took third place, beating Washington 3-2 after losing the first game 4-2. Kansas City belted Detroit twice, 7-6 in 11 innings and 8-2.

Strand 23 Men

The White Sox left 23 men on base while dropping their sixth in a row at home—where they had won their first 10. They stranded 14 in the first game, three in the seventh inning when winner Jim Perry (4-2) got Al Smith on a pop up. A four-run sixth did it for the Indians against Wynn (2-3).

In the second game the Indians walloped Shaw with six runs in the fourth inning. Latman won his first decision since the pre-season trade for Herb Score with John Briggs' relief.

Rookie Ron Hansen's three-run double in the fifth inning won the opener for the Orioles. Their other four came in the first inning, two on Gene Woodling's home run off Bill Monbouquette (4-4). Chuck Estrada (4-1) won it with Hoyt Wilhelm's relief help. The last-place Red Sox then beat the Birds for the first time in nine games, scoring seven runs on homers by Haywood Sullivan, Gene Stephens and Gary Geiger. Arnie Portocarrero (3-1) was the loser; Ted Bowsfield (1-1) won. Yogi Berra's two-run homer in the eighth beat Pete Ramos (2-6) after the Yankees had scored their first run on Roger Maris' 11th homer. Bobby Shantz (1-1) won it in relief. Bob Allison drove in both Washington runs in the opener with a homer, off loser Art Ditmar (2-2), and a single. Chuck Stobbs (2-1) was the winner with relief help from Tex Clevenger.

A's Take Pair

The Tigers blew a 6-0 lead in the opener, won by the A's on Hank Foiles' two-out pinch single in the 11th off reliever Bob Bruce (0-1). Bud Daley (6-2) won it, fanning seven in four innings of shutout relief. In the second game, Whitey Herzog brought the A's from behind with a three-run homer in the sixth, and Marv Throneberry then added a grand slam in the eighth. Both shots were off Paul Foytack (1-4). Reliever Bob Giggie won his first AL decision.

Attempt Is Made On Life Of Ruler

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Lebanese authorities have reported an attempt to gun down the ruler of the oil-rich little Persian Gulf Sheikdom of Qatar and are holding his cousin as the assassin.

The cousin—Nasser bin Hamad Al Thani—was accused of opening fire on the vacation residence of Sheikh Ali Bin Abdullah Al Thani at a Lebanese resort.

Informants laid the attack to financial differences between the sheikh and some members of his family.

Sheikh Ali has ruled the state of 400 persons since 1949.

Judge Marshall, a Democrat, was appointed to the bench by former Gov. Pinchot in 1931 and was elected to the office for successive terms, the latest expiring Jan. 1, 1962.

169 DIE IN STORM

Little Leagues Open Tonight

Two county Little Leagues are scheduled to start their league seasons this evening.

The Gettysburg Little League gets underway with the Rotary and Lions clashing at the recreation park at 6 o'clock. Burgess Wilbur L. Plank will toss out the first ball and speak briefly. President Fred Tilberg will also make a short address.

The other league opener will take place at Littlestown where the Orioles oppose the Indians.

WILLIE MAYS RUNS WILD TO BEAT CHICAGO

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Willie Mays may not be a one-man ball club, but he's not telling it to San Francisco Giant fans — or the opposition.

The "Say Hey" Kid put an incredible display of base running, hitting and fielding Monday in the Giants doubleheader split with Chicago.

Mays, who stole three bases during the day, streaked home from first on a Willie McCovey single giving the Giants a 5-4 ninth inning victory after the Cubs won the opener 2-1.

The Cubs tied it in the ninth with Bob Will's first homer of the year. Seth Moorehead, fifth Cub pitcher, walked Mays. McCovey hit a ground single to right. Willie Mays flew around the bases. Will fired to second baseman Jerry Kindall who threw wild at home as Mays slid in.

Praised By Rigney

"It was getting too cold out there," Mays said jokingly. Then, he explained that he planned to go home if Will made the throw to Kindall.

"He's the only ball player that could do it," said Manager Bill Rigney. "He's the greatest base runner I ever saw."

Cub Manager Lou Boudreau added, "Willie has terrific baseball instinct. To me, he's the best base runner in the game."

Rigney reminded that Mays hit a two-run homer in the third of the nightcap. He scored the fourth run when he singled in the fifth, stole second, sped to third on a short outfield fly and came home on Willie Kirkland's sacrifice fly.

Rhee In Seclusion; Charges Mounting

HONOLULU (AP) — "Koreans rage at Rhee trip—Huh offers to resign." Honolulu newspapers carried in banner headlines Monday.

But former Korean President Syngman Rhee, in seclusion, stuck to the silence he has maintained since shortly after he flew here Sunday with his wife.

Seoul reported mounting charges of misrule against him and criticism of his sudden flight to Hawaii.

The 85-year-old deposed leader is resting at a friend's home near Honolulu.

KEEPS PROMISE MADE IN 1944

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (AP)—a promise made 16 years ago to a soldier from this central Pennsylvania community was fulfilled Monday by Reginald Stranger, wartime mayor of Southampton, England.

Missing was the GI, Paul L. Shimer, to whom Stranger made the pledge. He was killed in action in Germany in April 1945.

When Shimer, a 27-year-old infantryman, arrived in England in 1944, he was greeted by Stranger as the millennial American soldier to pass through Southampton en route to France. The mayor promised Shimer he would visit Chambersburg some day.

Monday, Stranger presented a wreath to poppies to the town—the work of disabled British servicemen—in Shimer's memory. He also met Miss Patricia Ann Shimer, 19, the serviceman's daughter, who is now a college student in Columbia, S. C.

WINS FOURTH PLACE

Susan Eisenhower, daughter of Maj. and Mrs. John Eisenhower, won fourth place in the open pleasure horse class at the annual horse show of the Chambersburg Saddle Club which was held Sunday.

"Doodlin," owned by President Eisenhower, took fourth place in the knock down and out class.

The personal home of President Charles de Gaulle of France is at Colombey-les-Deux-Eglises, a village of 350 inhabitants in the Champagne area, about 125 miles east of Paris.

CARDS READY TO ORGANIZE "RUN BANK"

By CHARLES MAHER

Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals were ready today to revive an old idea and organize a baseball "run bank."

It works like this: When you score a ton of runs — as the Cards did Monday night when they clobbered Los Angeles 15-3 — you get to put the ones you need in reserve for use during periods when the price of a base hit gets above your means.

The Cardinals would not have to go to the bank much at home, where they've won 15 of their first 21 games this season. But the record suggests they might find it a handy device on the road, where they had won only 2 of 17 until Monday night.

Ernie Broglio, who hadn't started in more than a month, threw a four-hitter at the Dodgers and looked so good that Manager Solly Hemus announced he'd probably promote him to a regular starting job.

About the avalanche of scoring, Hemus said: "The way we're going now, with a lot of young guys in the lineup, we're certainly not going to score like that many times. But we'll get our share."

"You know guys like (Ken) Boyer, (Bill) White and (Joe) Cunningham are going to hit."

White hit his fourth and fifth homers Monday night, driving in four runs with them and two more with a double. Cunningham drove in three runs and Broglio brought in three himself with a pair of singles.

Start Of The 500-Mile Race

Jim Rathmann Is Winner Of Big Race; Close Finish

By DALE BURGESS

Associated Press Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Jim Rathmann will move to the head of the table tonight at the annual victory dinner for 500-mile race contenders, after 10 years of sitting below the winner.

He may pick up a check for well over $100,000, depending on distribution of special prizes by accessory and petroleum products companies.

Just how much he won, the baby-faced, balding Miami veteran won't know until the dinner.

13 Seconds Apart

But he does know he won it the hard way in a nerve-twanging duel with Rodger Ward, last year's winner, who finished less than 13 seconds behind.

The Ward-Rathmann rivalry has become a sports classic. Early last season, Ward chased Rathmann to a world's record speed of 170.262 miles an hour on the high-banked Daytona International Speedway.

In a see-saw battle without precedent on the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, Rathmann pulled ahead Monday about eight miles from the end and finished at a record speed of 138.767 miles an hour. Ward set the old record of 135.857 last year.

Fearful Burst Tire

Ward had to slacken near the end because of a right front tire so badly worn he feared it would burst. Rathmann had chewed up his right rear tire so badly that Chick Hirschman, his chief mechanic, said it wouldn't have lasted over two more laps.

Ward, starting his 10th straight 500, forced Rathmann to run over 144 miles an hour late in the race — faster than many of the 33 starters had run in qualifications.

Ward and Rathmann made their last pit stop for fuel and tires at the same time, on the 151st lap, three-fourths of the way.

Lead Swapped 5 Times

Ward went into the pits leading by a few feet and went out with Rathmann charging at his tail pipe. They swapped the lead five times after that, with Ward having a little edge on straightaway speed and Rathmann a thin advantage on the turns.

Veteran Eddie Russo wore out a tire and crashed into the southeast retaining wall in the only bad accident of the race. He was hospitalized in critical condition.

The worst tragedy of the 44th 500 occurred in the infield, where scaffolding collapsed on a temporary bleacher erected by fans, killing two persons and injuring over 70.

Old Record Shattered

The first seven finishers all broke Ward's year-old record. Officials were uncertain Monday night whether Paul Goldsmith, St. Clair Shores, Mich., or Don Branson, Champaign, Ill., finished third.

Unofficially, Eddie Johnson, Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, was fifth; Johnny Thomson, Boyertown, Pa., sixth; rookie Lloyd Ruby, Houston, Tex., seventh; Bob Veith, Oakland, Calif., eighth; Bud Tingelstad, Dayton, Ohio, ninth, and Bob Christie, Grants Pass, Ore., 10th.

First U.S. Casualty

The first American casualty of the day occurred when Mrs. Ann Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, bowed to Mary Williamson of Britain, 2 and 1.

Again the day was warm and playing conditions perfect over the Royal St. David's course. Two rounds today put the tournament in the quarter-finals. Two more Wednesday reduce the field to two for Thursday's title round.

Other third round results: Barbara McIntire, Lake Park, Fla., defeated Annis Trehan, Wales, 5 and 4.

JoAnne Goodwin of Haverhill, Mass., defeated Elizabeth Paynter, England, 9 and 7.

Philomena Garvey, Ireland, defeated G. E. Rudjard, England, 7 and 3.

Swimmers at Atlantic City, N. J., rescue an average of 1,200 swimmers each summer.

SOUTH PENN BASEBALL LOOP

Another complete schedule of games scheduled in the South Penn Baseball League was wiped out by wet grounds and rain on Monday. None have been re-scheduled.

A special league meeting has been called for Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the American Legion Home, Baltimore St., when the business will include re-scheduling of nine postponed games.

Dates have been set for three other postponements as follows: June 3, Bonneauville at Mummaburg; June 4, Cshstown at Harney; June 7, Bonneauville at Harney.

JERSEY DERBY CAPTURED BY BALLY ACHE

By JOHN CHANDLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

With the $122,330 Jersey Derby added to his list of dazzling achievements, Bally Ache heads for New York and the $125,000 Belmont Stakes today, where a victory June 11 would sew up the 3-year-old championship.

Bally Ache's neck victory over Tompon in the New Jersey Derby at Garden State Park Monday was the highlight of a big holiday thoroughbred racing afternoon that saw record crowds and parimutuel wagering at several tracks.

Sharing the spotlight was Bald Eagle, who easily won the $114,200 Metropolitan Handicap before a record New York turnout of 70,410 at Aqueduct. Bald Eagle, in winning the Metropolitan in 1:33 3-5, ran the fifth fastest mile in history. The world record is 1:33 1-5, set by Swaps at Hollywood Park in 1956, and equaled by Intentionally last June at Washington Park.

Williams spoke by telephone from his hotel room in Boston where he is bedded down with a heavy cold.

"I've got no big league managerial ambitions. But even if I had, I would never manage in Boston."

Williams said several reasons. "The most important is that I don't think there's a person alive who could satisfy the Boston writers. They are the biggest bunch of second guessers in the world. They are a manager's pailbearers."

Doesn't Hide Dislike

"Even a great manager like Casey Stengel couldn't satisfy them. He had his toughest time here as a manager, they finally ran him out of town. When he broke his leg while managing the Braves, one of the writers said it was the best thing that happened to the club."

Williams has never hidden his dislike for the Boston writers, with whom he has been feuding virtually from the first day he joined the Red Sox in 1939.

Temperamentally, owner Tom Yawkey had not approached him about taking over as Red Sox manager.

5 YANKEES IN TOURNEY

HARLECH, Wales (AP) — Five members of the U. S. Curtis Cup team swept into the fourth round today in the British Women's Amateur Golf Tournament.

Only one of the players, Anne Quast of Marysville, Wash., was carried as far as the 18th hole. Miss Quast won over Mrs. R. W. Sheppard of England, 2 up.

Other American winners won by lopsided scores.

Only two U. S. representatives were beaten in the third round and one of them by another American. Judy Eller of Old Hickory, Tenn., ousted her Curtis Cup teammate, Mrs. Ann Casey Johnson of Mason City, Iowa, 6 and 4.

Another early winner was JoAnne Gunderson of Kirland, Wash., who scored a 6 and 5 victory over Pamela Lane of England.

PHILS OPEN SERIES WITH MILWAUKEE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies open a three game series tonight against the Milwaukee Braves minus rookie outfielder John Callison, pitcher Jack Meyer and catcher Jim Coker, all of whom have been sidelined by injuries.

Callison, one of the most promising prospects who is the Phillies second leading hitter with a .295 average, reinjured his left knee Monday when he collided with Cincinnati catcher Ed Bailey in the sixth inning in a 5-4 loss to the Reds in the opener of a doubleheader. Philadelphia won the second game 6-1, snapping a seven-game losing streak.

Officials said Callison suffered either a torn or badly strained ligament in the left knee he injured in spring training. He was taken to Temple Hospital for x-rays today. It was not immediately known how long he would be sidelined.

Coker also was hurt in the opener when he was hit by a foul tip in the third inning. He suffered contusions of the right thumb. He is expected to be back in action within a few days.

Manager Gene Mauch said Meyer, who now is in Jefferson Hospital, hurt his back "horsing around" in his hotel room in Pittsburgh during a series there over the weekend. Mauch said Meyer "will receive more than a mild reprimand."

Gene Conley (2-2) suffered the loss in the 10-inning opener before the Phillies rebounded with 16 hits, their best output this year, to back the six-hit pitching of John Buzhardt (1-3) in the nightcap.

With two away in the 10th inning of the opener, Vada Pinson, singled and stole second, then he scored with the payoff run on Gus Bell's single.

Bobby Del Greco, replacing Callison in center in the second game, and Clay Dalrymple, subbing for Coker, belted home runs in the Phillies' five-run fifth inning which chased Don Newcombe (3-2).

Harry Anderson also hit a homer in the inning.

Two-out singles by Vada Pinson and Gus Bell put away the opener for the Reds and reliever Jim Brosnan (3-0) against the Phils' Gene Conley (2-3). The Phils then tagged three home runs in a five-run nightcap fifth that chased Don Newcombe (3-2). John Buzhardt (1-3) won it.

White hammered across four of the Cards' runs with a pair of homers. He also doubled and singled in the 16th outburst against Don Drysdale (4-5) and four relievers. Ernie Broglio (2-1) gave up just four hits, one Duke Snider's third home run in two days.

LOWREY WILL COACH PHILS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Harry (Peanuts) Lowrey, who played with Philadelphia in 1955 and with three other National League clubs in his 14-year career, has been signed as a coach by the Phillies.

Lowrey, who resigned his post as manager of the Idaho Falls club in the Class C Pioneer League to take the Phillies' job, replaces the ailing Dick Carter who resigned Monday because of high blood pressure.

Carter, 43, who has been in the Phillies' system as a minor league manager and coach since 1947, resigned Monday because of high blood pressure.

Carter first was appointed manager of the Dover

Long Memorial Day Weekend Takes Heavy Toll In Penna.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Twenty-seven persons were killed in accidents in Pennsylvania over the 78-hour Memorial Day weekend, the highest toll in the state this year and one of the highest in the nation.

Twenty-one of the victims died in traffic accidents, including four persons who were killed in a two-car collision near Pottstown and three men who were injured fatally in a single car smashup near Pittsburgh.

Two men died in a boating accident, a youngster drowned and three persons were killed in other accidents, pushing the toll to 27.

Topped Previous High

The previous high for a weekend this year was the non-holiday weekend of May 6-8 when 25 persons were killed, 20 of them in traffic accidents. The previous high for a holiday weekend was New Year's when 23 died, 19 on the highways.

The traffic deaths piled up quickly Friday night and early Saturday as thousands took to the highways for the weekend. Then the toll dropped sharply until late Monday when thousands began their trips home. The count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Monday.

Three of the four killed in the two-car collision near Pottstown Monday were Philadelphia youths returning home from a Memorial Day outing. Their car skidded on a wet spot and crashed into another car on a rural road.

Were To Be Married

The victims were Ronald Leidy, 19, driver of the car which skidded; Harry Kennedy, 20, and his brother, Joseph, 18; and Miss Viola Adams, in her early 30s, of Gloucester, N. J.

Miss Adams was riding in the car driven by Henry Casey, 54, of Glendora, N. J., who was critically injured. The two were to be married next week. Four other persons also were hurt.

In another multiple fatal in the Pottstown area, an auto ran out of control Friday night and killed Mrs. Mary Downs, 36, of Birdsboro, and Michael Lewinski, 26, of Linfield, as they stood in a restaurant parking lot on Route 422. The driver of the car was charged with involuntary manslaughter and driving while intoxicated.

Triple Fatalities

The triple fatal near Pittsburgh occurred Saturday night. Andrew Burton, 38, Saul Davis, 29, and William Wells, 57, all of Coraopolis, a Pittsburgh suburb, were killed when their auto crashed into a bridge abutment.

Mrs. Twila G. Smith, 56, and Randy Haugh, 8, her grandson, both of Summerville, Jefferson County were killed Monday when the car in which they were riding skidded off the highway near Tionesta during rain and crashed into a tree.

Ray Baublitz, 42, and his son-in-law, William Wagner, 24, both of York, were killed in the boating accident Monday on the Susquehanna River near Wrightsville. They were fishing in a 14-foot boat when it swamped. They tried to swim to shore but couldn't make it. Another son-in-law, who could not swim, clung to the boat and was rescued.

Child Drowns

The drowning victim was Ronald Graybill, 3, of Selinsgrove. He drowned Friday night in a creek near his home.

During the Memorial Day weekend of 1959 there were 11 drownings. Rain and unseasonably cold weather during part of the weekend this year kept many from water activities.

The other victims: Pittsburgh—Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Staff, 42, of Ingram, hit by a Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train in Allegheny County Monday.

Perryopolis—Mrs. Mary Voytilla, 55, of Perryopolis, killed Friday night when a truck and two cars collided on Route 51 about three miles from here. Six other persons were injured.

Philadelphia—Joseph S. Senick, 21, of Philadelphia, killed Saturday when his car—bought only a week ago by his father—hit a median strip and a bridge wall on the Schuylkill Expressway. A passenger was injured.

Student Killed

Villanova—John Baduini, 18, of Newark, Ohio, a student at Villanova University, killed Saturday as he walked across a road near the school. He was hit by a car driven by another student. The impact threw Baduini 75 feet and his shoes were knocked off. One went through the windshield of a passing car.

Center Valley—Mrs. Carl Kruger, 79, of Bethlehem, killed Saturday by a car as she walked across route 12 near this Lehigh County town.

Martinsville—Benjamin F. Myers, 35, killed Saturday when his tractor overturned and crushed him. The accident happened on a farm near this Lancaster County community.

Plane Hits Mountain

Towanda—Myron Driesbach, of Bloomsburg R. 3, killed Saturday when a car driven by his wife smashed into a rock cliff along a highway in North Towanda. Mrs. Driesbach was injured.

Altoona—Lawrence Hagerman, about 40, of Whittier, Calif., killed Saturday when his two-engine plane hit a mountain obscured by fog. Hagerman had taken off from Williamsport and was flying home alone after a business trip. He had purchased the plane only recently.

McSherrystown—William J. Jacoby, 22, of Hanover R. 4, killed Saturday when his car missed a curve, hit a pole over turned near this Adams County community.

Pittsburgh—Robert D. Barkley, 30, killed Sunday when his car hit a pole.

Turnpike Tragedy

Donegal—Jerome Anders, 26, of Racine, Wis., killed Sunday when his car ran off the Pennsylvania Turnpike and smashed against a rock jutting from an embankment. His wife was injured. The accident happened six miles from the Dongal interchange. Choconut — Roma Gardner, 50, of Friendsville, killed Monday night by a car as he walked along Route 26 north of this Susquehanna County community. The accident occurred only a few feet south of the New York State line. Pittsburgh—James Cronin, 48, of Pittsburgh, injured Saturday in a two-car collision. He died Monday night.

When he graduated from the University of Chicago Law School, Gov. Abraham A. Ribicoff of Connecticut was offered an important position with the Tennessee Valley Authority. He declined, saying "I am a small-town lawyer at heart," and went back to Connecticut.

PHILADELPHIA YOUTH KILLED IN ARGUMENT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An 18-year-old Philadelphia boy has been shot to death and two other youths injured seriously in what police described as the aftermath of an argument stemming from a minor traffic incident involving two cars of teen-agers.

Killed was Philip Curci. Police Chief Clarence Johnston of suburban Cheltenham Township said 19-year-old Arthur Nichol Jr. had to pull behind two parked cars containing the other youths tified as the youth who fired the fatal shot Monday from a 38-caliber revolver.

Three Girls Involved

Nichol was taken to Rolling Hills Hospital in Cheltenham Township after being hit over the head with a piece of pipe. Admitted to the same hospital was Anthony Mandia, 18, of Philadelphia, who was shot in the head.

Seven other teen-agers, including three girls, were taken into custody for questioning. All involved were white.

Johnston said Nichol was driving north on a road in the township along with a passenger, William Beatty, 19, of suburban Oakland, who was identified as the owner of the gun, when their auto had to pull behind two parked cars containing the other youths in order to allow a southbound auto to pass.

Ignored Warning Shot

Johnston added that as Nichol started to pass the parked cars, some words were shouted and someone threw an object which smashed a window in the Nichol auto.

Dist. Atty. Vincent Cirillo of Montgomery County said Nichol stopped his car and Curci hit him with a lead pipe. Cirillo added Nichol then fired the fatal shot.

Johnston quoted Nichol as saying he took the gun from the glove compartment and fired it once in the air to frighten the others as they got out of their cars; that they then came toward him despite the warning shot.

Charges were not immediately filed pending further investigation.

Two Missing Boys Are Found—Safe

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Two young brothers, objects of an intensive police search after their disappearance Saturday, were in the custody of juvenile authorities today.

James Gent, 10, and his brother, Robert, 8, were found walking along a road near South Park Monday.

The youngsters told police they: Left home to find a rabbit to give their mother as a birthday present, found a rabbit, found a quarter, bought a box of marshmallows with the quarter, slept Saturday night in a parked car near a steel mill, and spent Sunday night in an abandoned auto in a junkyard.

2 CHILDREN IN FAMILY DROWN

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A horrified father learned that his only son drowned Sunday when his fishing hook caught on the boy's body.

His daughter was found two hours later, also drowned.

Specialist C.C. Thurman H. Jenner, a Trumann, Ark., native stationed at Ft. Campbell, Ky., said he and his wife and their five children had gone fishing and picnicking on a creek near here.

He and Mrs. Jenner walked down the creek bank and fished for about 30 minutes, away from the children.

When they returned, he said, "I walked up to where I'd put two poles over the creek. One of the poles was pulled down near the water's edge.

"I started reeling it in. When it was about three feet away, I saw it was my boy."

The youth was Robert Eugene Jenner, 11.

Dragging operations began when it was discovered his daughter, Sharon, 10, also was missing.

B. PASTERNAK DIES IN SLEEP NEAR MOSCOW

By STANLEY JOHNSON

MOSCOW (AP) — Boris Pasternak, 70-year-old Nobel prizewinning author of "Doctor Zhivago," died Monday night.

Friends said the noted poet, novelist and translator died in his sleep at his villa in Peredelkino, a writer's colony 20 miles outside Moscow.

Suffering from a heart ailment, lung cancer and stomach bleeding since May 1, he had been in a coma most of the time for several days.

Indicted Communists

A storm of Soviet criticism broke over Pasternak after he was named winner of the Nobel Prize for literature in 1958. The award is given for the entire body of an author's work, but the timing made it apparent that he was being cited primarily for "Doctor Zhivago," a quiet but powerful indictment of Communist methods and a strong assertion of individual dignity and Christian humanism.

The book, written in 1948-53, was first printed by an Italian publisher. It rapidly became an international bestseller, but the Soviet regime has never permitted its publication in the Soviet Union.

When he first heard he had been cited by the Swedish Nobel committee, Pasternak told reporters the prize "fills me with great joy and also gives me great moral support."

Drummed Out Of Union

Soviet officials looked on the prize as an affront to the Soviet government. The storm of disapproval extended from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev down through the ranks of Soviet writers.

Pasternak was drummed out of the Union of Soviet Writers as a betrayer of the Socialist cause who had written "in the interests

Fulbright Would Have Used Phony

WASHINGTON (AP) — Even a phony tale that the Soviets had stolen the U2 spy plane would have been wiser than what the United States finally did claim, says Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.).

Fulbright, critical of President Eisenhower's role in the incident, spoke on a television program—NBC—Meet the Press—Sunday during a Memorial Day weekend recess of the investigation by his Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

The senator said Eisenhower should not have taken responsibility for the flight.

The committee, probing the U2 incident and the failure of the Paris summit conference, reconvened behind closed doors Tuesday to hear the testimony of Allen W. Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

PARIS (AP) — A nationwide rail strike today stranded travelers all over France and resulted in monstrous traffic jams in the cities.

The 24-hour strike—for higher wages—began at midnight and was almost totally effective.

The strike was called by the Communist-led General Confederation of Labor.

of fanning the cold war." There were demands that he be exiled.

The quiet writer, who had shunned politics, was deeply grieved by the controversy. In a personal appeal to Khrushchev, he renounced the Nobel Prize and said he was "bound to Russia by birth, life and work." He said leaving his country would be "tantamount to death."

After the furor, Pasternak retreated into almost complete seclusion at his two-story home overlooking a rolling countryside.

Perfume 'Round the Clock

Q. — Dear Jane: I adore perfume, but for some reason or other its fragrance just does not last on me. I have told several of my friends that I want a new perfume, but first I must find out about a lasting one.—Mrs. G. B. A.

A. — A particularly good idea for women who claim that perfume does not "stay with them" is a Liquid Skin Sachet. It smooths on the skin very easily, and lingers longer because of its sachet base. It has a slower rate of diffusion and evaporation than any other type of fragrance and was originated by Houbigant. Try their Chantilly Liquid Skin Sachet. Only $2.25 plus tax at REA & DERICK, INC.

CONCEPCION AGAIN HIT BY EARTHQUAKE

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — New earth tremors over the weekend battered Concepcion, one of the major victims of the quakes which devastated southern Chile.

Monday was the 10th day of horror for the battered nation.

Thousands fled in panic when nine more earth shocks hit Concepcion at intervals through Saturday night. There was no report of new casualties, but the city mourned 112 persons killed last week.

The modern city of 100,000, completely rebuilt after a devastating earthquake in 1939, was again in ruins.

Buildings Sway
Ernesto Rodriguez, editor of the Concepcion newspaper La Patria, said the weekend tremors "set the buildings in the downtown area swaying back and forth, and many of the homes that withstood the earlier shocks just crumbled."

Fear of being trapped in falling buildings sent most residents rushing into the streets and parks where they huddled in terror.

Officials predicted the death toll in the onslaught of quakes and tidal waves would reach 5,000, with property damage estimated at nearly a billion dollars.

Worldwide relief agencies were rushing doctors, nurses and tons of food, clothing and medical equipment to Chile for the victims.
